TIST GUIDELINES ON RESTORATION OF GROVES

In some instances, Cluster Servants are having requests from farmers to have their old tree groves restored back. Some of these groves were dropped from the TIST website when some farmers refused quantification due to some reasons, or they were marked inactive because they couldn't be accessed because of bush, or any other reason. Some were mistakenly dropped due to technical problems. We want to serve such farmers and restore their groves if they are genuinely keeping trees. There are groves that have been harvested and they cannot be restored. Such groves will harm the entire program. Here is the guideline in restoring old groves.

• A farmer should make such a request during the Cluster Meeting. He/she should explain why he/she wants that grove be restored.

• Cluster Servant, if satisfied with the request, should visit that grove, and assess it. Check whether the grove is still intact with trees and take photos of the grove. TIST: Guidelines on Restoration of Groves.

• Cluster Servants should share photos of such groves with any member of Leadership Council and to any Desk Auditor.

• Photos should be taken whether or not the grove has trees. Even if it will not qualify to be restored, please continue to share photos.

• Cluster Servant will then give their report during the next Cluster meeting. If Cluster leaders recommend the grove to be restored, Cluster Servant will take note of that grove and forward the request to Regional Tech person.

• The Regional Tech person will review it and have it restored within a week.

• After the grove is restored, a Cluster Servant will, within two weeks, quantify that grove. It is recommended that the groves for the entire group be re-quantified, especially if it is past 30 days quantification.

TREE PLANTING AND THE CO-BENEFITS

Fellow TIST Farmers, I would like to begin by thanking the goodness of the Lord for His natural love to you and me.

The same God created the universe in a beautiful way. As we learn from the Bible, and physically see.

Mountains, rivers, natural environment in general.

Due to our stubbornness, I would say. We have destroyed the canopy.

The results now are harsh weather, untimely rain fall, heavy storms, unproductive soils, etc.

Today, TIST Uganda Program has a component of co-benefits alongside tree planting to help farmers live a better life in their households.

The co-benefits are called TIST Best Practices that include:

- Construction of energy cooking stoves
- Establishment of nursery beds
- Fruit tree growing
- Women in leadership
- Training seminars
- Education sponsorship (16 students benefitting)
- Continuing education for employees
- Grooming leaders through rotational leadership
- Addressing health issues
- Nutrition
- Practicing Conservation Farming
- Beekeeping as one of the income generating activities greatly considered by the program

Dear Farmers, we are all encouraged to put this in practice alongside tree planting for our good and the betterment of our environment. God bless you.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The grievance procedure is intended as the tool by which members and workers may formally have a grievance heard by TIST management.

All grievances are first brought to the attention of the Leadership Council, where the issues are compared to standard TIST policy, TIST values and/or the Greenhouse Gas agreement among the Small Group members and CAAC. TIST policies and values are the subject of training at seminars, Cluster meetings, Small Group meetings and are published periodically in the Tree. The Leadership Council shall give the aggrieved party an answer within 30 days of receipt of the formal complaint.

If the issue is not resolved within 30 days, the aggrieved party shall be informed that the case must be presented to TIST Management and shall inform TIST Management of the issue. Where precedence or policy exists, TIST Management shall use such documents in final decision making and respond to the aggrieved person within 30 days of their receipt of the formal complaint. Where new issues arise that are outside the existing precedence, or policy, the issue shall be brought to the next seminar or Leadership Council meeting, where decisions are made by representatives of the Small Groups, Uganda Staff and TIST Management.

RUNYAKORE

If conflicts or grievances cannot be resolved internally, CAAC and the aggrieved party shall agree upon a mediator to whom they shall submit the issue. Any grievances not resolved through mediation shall be subject to arbitration through the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Uganda Branch within 30 days of the close of mediation.

Who supports TIST?

TIST is the name of a program. The program has two main components.

1. The first is the greenhouse gas component, managed and funded by Clean Air Action Corporation (CAAC). CAAC is creating a business whereby the carbon dioxide absorbed by the trees is salable as carbon credits in industrialized countries. The future revenues are the basis for the tree payments made to the Small Groups and will provide direct payments to them once the market is developed and the trees have grown.

2. The second component is sustainable development, managed by the Institute for Environmental Innovation (I4EI). It provides the Small Group training and capacity building for TIST. I4EI is a not-for-profit organization that has received funding in Kenya from USAID Kenya and CAAC and has had a small grant for Uganda from the Berkeley Reforestation Trust.

What is the Greenhouse Gas Contract about?

Small Groups enter into a contract with Clean Air Action for 60 years. The contract sets out the terms and conditions of the tree payments and allows Clean Air Action to sell the carbon credits that are available as a result of their trees. The contract is necessary to transfer the title of the carbon to the customer. The trees themselves remain the property of the group.

TIST PROGRAM AS A SOCIAL, RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATION

Socially, TIST allows people to gather in Small Groups to form Clusters which in advance help different people get a joint meeting. In terms of leadership, any active TIST member is granted a chance to lead, which enables grooming a member to gain leadership skills that helps to fit in every society. Religiously, it helps someone to be courageous in spirit and also build the love within the members, there is love of God through prayers and worship at the beginning of each meeting. This also helps to bind people in their communities and live together in harmony. This creates moral up-tight status of a human being. The combination of all the above, makes discipline stable, economically outstanding and self-awareness in any situation. I therefore call upon everyone be hungry to join TIST and thirst to plant trees and get satisfied later with carbon credits. "For God and my country."
